EXTREME WINS ANOTHER CUP RACE

Famous Gelding Takes Coveted
Pimlico Trophy for the Third Time.

BEATS BONIFACE A NECK

Two Horse Affair Throughout,
With Lady Emmeline
Beaten Off.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 12.—Extremator, gallant old son of McGee and Fair Empire, raced his way into the hall of fame immortals by taking the Pimlico Cup for the third successive time today. He finished a neck in advance of Boniface after the pair had raced like a team throughout the two mile and a quarter journey in the muddy going.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer, owner of the winner, saw his pride run one of the gamiest races of his career under Albert Johnson's handling. Sande, who had the leg up on Commander Ross's Boniface, displayed a high order of horsemanship when he took the son of Transylvania under restraint soon after the start and forced Extremator to make the pace, which he did with open mouth and arched neck, under Johnson's pull for a mile and a half before he was able to get the only other starter, Lady Emmeline, for company a few lengths back for the first mile after which she retired from contention, so that the supporters of Extremator and Boniface had only to worry about their choices.

Sande kept Boniface lapped on Extremator rounding the turns, and several times seemed to attempt to force him into the deeper going along the rail, but Johnson kept the king to his path.

Round of Cheers Too Soon.

At the two mile ground the Boniface supporters gave vent to lusty cheers for it seemed that Extremator was through, but Johnson piled the lash and they fought throughout the stretch until Extremator passed the finish with a short lead and a shout of "Emmeline was twenty lengths behind."

Faster time was prohibited by the heavy condition of the track and the high winter winds that swept it. It was a day for staunch horses and brave men. Extremator's share of the $10,000 added purse was $6,800. His trainer, William Knapp, who had ridden him in his Kentucky Derby victory, was presented with $1,500. Boniface earned $2,000 for Commander Ross and $500 for Trainer Henry McDaniel, while Lady Emmeline took $1,000 for owner, J. T. Oxnard, and $300 for Trainer J. Simon Healy. The $500 offered for a fourth horse and the $200 for his trainer reverted to the association when Damask could not be started.

The biting cold and lowering skies reduced the attendance to the smallest holiday assemblage of the meeting, but the numerous owners who sent six or more horses at a mile or over, that helped to thrill if they did not warm.

The consolation steeplechase, over the two mile distance, was captured by C. K. Harrison, Jr.'s Overmatch in a drive from Intimid II, after the lead was opened by the misfortune that befell the pacemaker, Lieutenant Seah, when he came a cropper at the eleven hundred yard mark while enjoying a wide lead.

James A. Sheridan, who had been the pacemaker's closest attendant to that point, fired locally in the run home but saved third. Jim Coffroth topped the rider at the ninth jump, and Kathryn Harlan fell heavily at the twelfth.

Bribed Voter, with little J. Moran up, accounted for the third, over the mile and a sixteenth course, for horses ridden by jockeys who had never ridden before.

Grace Foster was the easy winner of the opener for juveniles over the mile route. She was in command at all stages and won with a reserve of three lengths from Sea Master, Fair Virginia and six others.

Attorney revelled in the going and broke the winning streak of Joan of Arc when he finished a length in advance of her and four others, under Lang's restraint.

Opperman crowded his way into the lead in the final strides of the Caswell while pursing for juveniles over the mile distance, while Clansman All Fair and four others finished behind.

The final over the mile and a half route was marred by the misfortune of handling of Commi Cl. So faulty was it that he finished fourth behind Tuscan Maid, Veteran and Fairway in the order named.

Careful's entry from the test stake on Monday has been withdrawn, the filly having emerged from her dead heat race on Friday with a lame shoulder. She will be shipped to Belmont Park into winter quarters next week and will be taken over by T. J. Healy, the new trainer for the Walter J. Salmon string, on December 12.
